

Retroformations at ACM

"Let It Rain" by DHS student Matt Files demonstrates the unfortunate fate of the beautiful rain forests. "Retroformations" is an outdoor installation at the Art Complex Museum by area high school students of art. Each work of art is made from recycled, found materials and other objects. The exhibit runs through June 24.